

Call For Proposals: ACM SIGCOMM 2011 Workshops 15-19 August 2011 in Toronto, Canada

<http://conferences.sigcomm.org/sigcomm/2011/>]

SIGCOMM 2011 will hold multiple one-day workshops in conjunction with the conference, to be held in Toronto, Canada, August 15 to 19, 2011. Workshops will take place on Monday August 15 and Friday August 19. We invite you to submit workshop proposals on any topic related to the broad set of research and application areas covered by SIGCOMM conference and SIG. Proposals on emerging topics guaranteed to generate significant interest in the community will be selected. SIGCOMM 2011 invites proposals for returning and new workshops.

A workshop proposal should contain at least the following information:

- Motivation and rationale for the workshop
- A draft Call For Papers (CFP), as complete as possible
- The workshop deadlines (internal and external)
- Names and affiliations of main organizers and tentative composition of the committees (as complete as possible)
- Workshop format, i.e., expected number of presented papers, invited talks, panels, demonstrations, etc.
- Expected number of submissions and participants
- Prior history of this workshop, if any, including number of submissions, number of accepted papers, and attendee count. If the workshop was co-located with another conference please include details and a brief description why SIGCOMM is a more appropriate venue.

Note that workshop format itself should favor interaction among participants as well as community building.

Email proposals by Tuesday November 3, 2010 in PDF to sigcomm2011workshops@acm.org
